

TUTOR GROUPS	Staff	TUTOR GROUPS	Staff
Why have Dixon, Browning, Hackworth And Sharpe ? What is the relevance? All have a link with the Durham area and each are from a background linked with the curriculum.
	DIXON Jeramiah Dixon was an astronomer born in Cockfield. He was a skilled mathematician, calculating, predicting and problem solving being skills he transferred to a career as a surveyor.	Steven Christian (Maths)		BROWNING Elizabeth Barret Browning was a poet who was born in Coxhoe, County Durham. As well as gaining great success from her published work, she was a campaigner for the abolition of slavery.	Michael Cullen (English)
	HACKWORTH Timothy Hackworth was an engineer who lived in Shildon. Hackworth was one of the team who investigated steam traction and he played a key role in the design of the Stephenson locomotive using applied science skills to identify solutions to meet the needs of society in his days.	Dr Valerie Cornish (Science)		SHARPE Granville Sharpe was born in Durham in 1735, he was one of the first British campaigners for the abolition of the slave trade. He also involved himself in trying to correct other social injustices.	Laura Stock (Citizenship)

