Document Control

This document is issued, controlled and impact assessed by the Senior Leadership Team. The latest version of the procedure will be maintained on the School Website

Scope

The policy applies to the whole school community and should be read in conjunction with Equality and Diversity and Disciplinary Policies.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to demonstrate the academy's determination to ensure that all students can enjoy a life free from bullying of any kind physical or emotional via direct or distant (cyber bullying) interface.

Comment

Endeavour Academy will challenge bullying behaviour and promote an awareness of the seriousness with which bullying will be viewed through:

- The Curriculum;
- The Tutorial system;
- Documentation on policy statements and other appropriate literature;
- Staff Development / CPD sessions.
- Resilience Programmes of learning
- MECC (Making Every Contact Count)
- Restorative Justice Programme

Within each of these areas lies an understanding that every individual has a responsibility to prevent bullying.

Responsibility for the implementation of these strategies lies with everyone. The school's leadership team has a duty to ensure that all staff and students are aware of their responsibility.

General guidance on the nature of bullying, bullying behaviour and the effect of bullying is provided within this document.

Policy Statement

Endeavour Academy is committed to providing a safe, secure, and positive environment in which everyone can develop and learn, making full use of the range of facilities available to them.

All who use or work in Endeavour Academy are entitled to be treated with respect and understanding, and to participate in any activity free from intimidation.

All staff at Endeavour Academy are expected to listen actively to young people and other students and act appropriately on information received in order to ensure that a safe, secure, positive environment exists.

Aims

- To effectively use, teach and promote the use of MECC (Making Every Contact Count) within school.
- To promote and use an effective Restorative Justice Programme to resolve any issues and prevent bullying.
- To prevent bullying of any form, physical, verbal, cyber or mental.
- To ensure that everyone is aware that bullying will not be tolerated.
- To comply with all relevant Human Rights legislation.
- To ensure that everyone understands that they have a responsibility for the safety and wellbeing of others.

Objectives

- To provide and encourage a safe, listening environment in which people feel free to discuss their feelings and concerns regarding bullying behaviour.
- To raise everyone's awareness of bullying.
- To identify and provide appropriate training (staff development) in relation to identifying and preventing bullying and the recognising the positive impact of restorative practices.
- To regularly review the policy and procedures relating to bullying.
- To monitor procedures and their effectiveness in preventing bullying.
- To investigate fully any reports of bullying.
- To take positive actions to deal with bullying behaviour.
- To provide appropriate training and support for victims of bullying and those involved in bullying behaviour through daily practice, MECC, Restorative Approaches and Resilience Programmes of Learning.

School Code of Practice

- All members of the school community have a responsibility to ensure that students and staff are free from bullying.
- All staff should monitor conduct and language to eliminate bullying behaviour and practices and should actively counter such behaviour amongst students.

- All staff are aware of the impact their physical and emotional presence has with regards to deflecting behaviours and steering positive outcomes.
- All staff and students are taught how to effectively use MECC and Restorative Languages, encouraged to use every interaction and a possible intervention in supporting those around them.
- Staff and students are taught how to interact with those around them appropriately, taking into consideration specific needs and circumstances to promote positive interactions and outcomes. Specific focus is given to body language, tone of voice and words used when interacting.
- All staff and students should be aware of the procedures for complaints, details can be found on the school website.
- Staff, students and parents / carers should be able to access and follow Endeavour Academy's complaints procedure if bullying occurs or is suspected if necessary.
- Any allegation of bullying will be fully investigated and dealt with appropriately to ensure there is no recurrence using restorative practices.
- When a person is suspected of bullying every effort will be made to establish the facts and appropriate action will be taken to ensure there is no recurrence.
- The victim and bully will be offered support from appropriate staff members within school or partner agencies where necessary.

The school regards bullying as a serious offence and will apply School Disciplinary Procedures where appropriate.

Performance Indicators

- Incidents of bullying will be recorded and analysed.
- Student and parent surveys will be conducted and analysed to monitor bullying.
- Awareness raising for students will be conducted during Induction and throughout the tutorial and E-Safety programmes with a specific focus in curriculum areas such as Citizenship, PHSE and Resilience Programmes of Learning.
- The Preventing Bullying Policy will be reviewed annually.
- An annual report will be submitted to the Trust.

General Guidance

At Endeavour Academy we acknowledge that bullying can have a long-term damaging effect upon all those involved.

We must ensure that all students are aware that:-

- They have the right to be safe at school;
- Telling an appropriate person about bullying is the responsibility of everyone;
- Clearly defined actions will follow when bullying is reported;
- All reports will be taken seriously.

What is bullying?

Bullying can be defined as the repeated or intentional abuse of power by an individual or group, with the intent and motivation, to cause distress to another individual or group.

- It may be physical, verbal, technological or psychological in nature.
- It may occur frequently or infrequently, regularly or irregularly, but it should be taken seriously in all instances.
- In more serious instances where an adult abuses their power over a child, or a child over another child, bullying may be viewed as child abuse and should be seen within this context.
- Not all aggressive behaviour is bullying. Some children without the intention or awareness that it causes distress may exhibit behaviours, which appear to be bullying. In these circumstances, all involved will be supported to repair relationships and minimise conflict.
- Some individuals may feel they are being bullied, even when there is no intention from others to cause distress. All perceptions of bullying will be taken seriously. In these incidents, the restorative approach is likely to be effective and reduce the chance of recurrence. Students within Endeavour learn about their own behaviours, how these impact those around them and how to use their interactions to achieve a more positive outcome for all concerned.

Place in the school community and implementation

The school community includes all students, parents / carers, trustees and staff. They will be informed of and involved in, the Preventing Bullying Policy. This will be done through:-

- Information booklets / school prospectus
- School Newsletters

- Learning Mentors
- Staff Meetings / CPD sessions
- The School Website
- Student Council

All members of the school community have responsibility to ensure that students and staff are free from bullying.

Examples of what may be perceived as bullying behaviour

- Name calling
- People spreading rumours about you
- People making up stories to get you in trouble
- Your friends are being taken away, and you are left on your own
- Your friends are being told not to be your friends
- You are being hit, kicked, tripped up or pushed around
- People are making remarks about your culture, religion, colour, gender or sexuality
- People are making remarks about your looks or weight
- People are making remarks about your disability or medical condition
- You are being left out of group work in class
- You are being left out during team selections
- People are taking your possessions or demanding money from you
- People are damaging your property
- People are hiding your bag or books
- People are making jokes about you when they can see you are upset
- You are receiving nasty notes, text messages, e-mails or phone calls
- You are unhappy with the way people behave towards you and they continue to do it after they have participated in restorative practices and have been made aware of your feelings towards their behaviours / actions and the impact they may be having on you

- People are threatening to do nasty things to you
- If you feel you have to go along with the crowd behaviour even when you want to stop or know it is wrong, because you are frightened of saying no and what might happen to you
- People make unwelcome sexual advances in any way
- Different forms of cyber bullying: 'Facebook', MSN, 'Twitter' etc.
- Any other behaviour which makes you feel uncomfortable.

Identifying signs of bullying through behaviour

The behaviour of children, young people and adults is not easily understood. Changes in behaviour may have many causes. Being bullied can be one reason why behaviour changes.

There is a need to be alert to the possibility that bullying is occurring. These are some signs which need to be investigated sensitively.

The individual may:

- Become withdrawn, tearful, moody, aggressive, uncooperative or non-communicative
- Have sleep or appetite problems
- Have more difficulty concentrating
- Show variation in work performance
- Have cuts, bruises or aches and pains without adequate explanation
- Request extra money or start stealing
- Have clothes or possessions which are damaged or lost
- Complain of illness more frequently
- Start bullying others
- Behave in uncharacteristic ways or exhibit a marked change in a well-established pattern of behaviour e.g.
 - A sudden loss of interest in a previously favoured activity
 - Changing times of arriving to school or lessons
 - Increased absence

- A reluctance to attend school
- A request to change school
- A refusal or avoidance of a particular lesson or activity e.g. PE.
- Experimenting with drugs and alcohol.
- Some sufferers of bullying do not appear to reveal any outward signs.

Guidelines for sufferers of bullying behaviours

If you think you are being bullied or know of someone being bullied, tell someone you trust. This may be a member of staff, a parent/ carer, another student, a friend, a peer-supporter or trusted adult. If they cannot help, ask them to tell someone who can.

Do not react to the bully in a way that could put you at more risk e.g. physical retaliation.

Guidelines for staff dealing with bullying amongst students in school

Evaluate the immediate safety and well-being of the individual reporting a bullying incident.

Is the individual in danger of further bullying? If yes, communicate your concerns with colleagues who will be able to observe and support in order to prevent any further incident.

If a student reports what they perceive as bullying behaviours towards themselves or others, staff will work with the student, their parent / carers and the Pastoral Team to repair any harm quickly and effectively using a restorative approach. If the relationships are repaired and all involved are satisfied with the outcome then the incident will be recorded as a friendship issue, however if the issue persists and those involved are unwilling to work towards rectifying the issue then the incident will be recorded as bullying and appropriate action will be taken.

Any form of bullying whether it is physical, verbal, technological or psychological will be dealt with in the same way:

- The individual reporting the incident must record details of what happened, when and where, and include a list of independent witnesses (if available), this will be recorded on CPOMs at the first opportunity.
- If First Aid is required send the pupil to reception with an escort.
- All pupils involved in the incident should give a statement ensuring they include their name, the date and signature.
- Reports will be collected and collated by the person to whom the incident is reported and passed to the appropriate pastoral staff via CPOMs and verbally.
- The Senior Leadership Team will deal with the incident in line with the Behaviour Policy of the school.

Racial, Bullying, Sexual harassment procedures are to be followed. All incidents of racial abuse / bullying / harassment in all formats are to be monitored by CPOMS and Senior Staff. All incidents of racial abuse are reported to the Local Authority via racist incident form.

All staff should:

- Protect and support all parties while the issues are resolved.
- Encourage pupils to discuss incidents of bullying.
- Promote and facilitate restorative approaches, allowing for students to identify any issues and discuss their feelings.
- Listen to and treat pupils sympathetically and take their concerns seriously.
- Ensure the individual displaying behaviours which are perceived as bullying know:
 - that they will be expected to participate in restorative session
 - what effects their actions are having
 - that their actions are not acceptable
 - that a record of the incident will be placed in their file and recorded on CPOMs.
 - that any other appropriate sanction will be administered to try to ensure that bullying does not occur again;
 - that there is a lead member of senior staff with responsibility for Preventing-Bullying Co-ordination in school (Deputy Head of School –Pastoral – Lesley Wood) and they will be seen by them.
- Involve pupils in the discussion about what action will be taken and what they must do if bullying reoccurs.
- Maintain contact with parents throughout and recognise that their support is very important in dealing with bullying.

Guidelines for parents / carers / families of children being bullied

If you suspect or have reason to believe that your child is being bullied or your child is showing a number of the characteristics of bullying behaviour:

- Talk to your child about what is happening. Be calm, show sensitivity, show concern, reassure your child that he or she is not to blame.
- If your child says that they are worried about being with certain people in certain places take this seriously.

- Emphasise the fact that fighting back physically should be avoided at all costs and is likely to make the situation much worse.
- If at all possible, act with your child's agreement, encourage them to speak out with confidence, knowing that school staff will be there to offer support.
- Follow academy procedures (See Appendix 1).
- Be confident that the academy will take you seriously and take appropriate action.
- Please make use of the co-sponsors specialist Preventing Bullying Service and do not take independent action.
- Maintain contact and work with the academy.
- Give the academy time to deal with the issues. If you are concerned, contact the key member of staff.
- Endeavour Academy expects your child to attend unless there is an agreement with the Head of School.

Bullying is never acceptable. Action needs to be taken to stop bullying. If it is ignored it often gets worse. Your child should not put up with it and is encouraged to speak out.

Guidelines if you are a pupil supporting a victim

- Listen carefully and sympathetically to the pupil confiding in you.
- Encourage them to tell a member of staff or a responsible adult, or allow you to go with them to report it, or write down what has happened and pass this information onto either a Learning Mentor or the Deputy Head of School.
- Maintain contact with the pupil. Your support is very important to them while they deal with bullying.
- Do not try to deal with it yourself or ask another pupil to do so.

Additional guidelines for peer support / mentors

- Display empathy, remember that complete confidentiality is not always possible, and this should be made very clear to anyone attempting to confide in you.
- Explore choices, options available.
- Explore methods and ways of avoiding bullying situations.
- Use the restorative questions frequently and ensure they are deemed normal practice.

- Remember bullying can be very complex. Seek supervision as and when appropriate.
- Record any incidents on CPOMs and report verbally to the Deputy Head of school – Pastoral at your earliest convenience.

Guidance for outside agencies

Within the Agency's Confidentiality guidelines pass on the information to appointed Link Person or Deputy Head of School – Pastoral (Lesley Wood) on a "Need to know basis".

Guidance for staff experiencing bullying

Refer to HR policies for advice, guidance and support.

Suggested sanctions / actions to be taken when dealing with cases of bullying

As cases vary so much and can be extremely complex, it must be left to the judgement of the senior managers involved as to which sanctions and/or strategies are used. The following are examples of actions which may be taken:

- Restorative Practices should be used wherever possible, this will allow for discussion between the victim and the perpetrator, allow both parties to express their own feelings, understand the impact and give an opportunity to apologise, make amends and move on, resulting in no further actions (other than close monitoring of the situation).
- Parents / carer involvement.
- Support group for the victims, run jointly by peer mentors and staff.
- Regular intervention for victims and bullies.
- Asking bullies to put themselves in the victim's position , acknowledging their feelings.
- Apology by the bully to the victim, written or verbal.
- Restrictions put in place during break and lunch times, or supervised delay before being allowed to leave school.
- Use of Internal Isolation or a fixed term exclusion.
- Permanent Exclusion is possible if the incident requires.
- Referral for external agency involvement.
- Referral to Safeguarding / Pastoral Team for additional support.
- Planning and mediation meeting with pupils and Learning Mentor.
- Letter home.

Recording system monitoring of bullying

- Use of CPOMs system to record and monitor bullying incidents.
- Effective and regular monitoring of all incidents to do with bullying through CPOMs checks.

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the way a case has been handled, complaints should be made in accordance to the Academy's Complaint Procedure, available from the main office.

Why it is important to do something about bullying

Bullying is always damaging to those involved. The victim, the bully and those who witness or even know about the bullying are affected.

Victims

Victims may spend their lives in fear. They often feel isolated from their peers and may believe that it is something about themselves which has led the bully to pick on them.

The victim's life may be characterised by unhappiness, a sense of desolation and desperation and exclusion from normal social experiences. Those feelings can permeate all aspects of the victim's life and may lead to a strong desire to escape the situation by running away from home, truanting from school, college, absences from work, and in some cases, self-harming or taking their own life.

The victims of bullying may have reduced self-esteem and self-worth and their performance in school, college, work and other areas often deteriorates.

Research evidence has shown that victims of bullying may be more likely to experience mental health problems and also that they are more likely to become bullies themselves.

Endeavour academy staff work with young people who may perceive themselves as victims of bullying to build resilience and move forward, intent on reducing impact of any future altercations by providing them with the strength and knowledge to deal with situations swiftly and effectively in order to obtain a positive outcome for all involved.

Bullying Behaviour

Bullying is not a natural behaviour pattern and should not be seen as such.

People who bully are likely to experience difficult and unhappy relationships with their peers and frequently need help to overcome these difficulties.

People who bully are unlikely to stop while they can continue unchallenged.

Endeavour Academy staff aim to support anyone who acts out in a bullying manor to acknowledge and understand the impact of their own behaviours and how to rectify those behaviours in order to achieve a more positive outcome for all concerned.

Cyber Bullying

Bullying also occurs by misuse of technologies e.g. emails, text messages, internet and various social medias. Such occurrences must be tackled with equal importance as physical bullying. Students must be aware that by forwarding inappropriate messages or images on, they are equally as culpable as the originator. Personal Teachers will include sessions in the tutorial programme which deal with cyber bullying and how to protect yourself on-line.

Endeavour Academy does not have a specific policy of dealing with cyber-bullying which occurs outside of school, this should be referred to the police. However, any issues arising in school as a result of this will be dealt with in accordance with school policies.

Others

Bullying behaviour does not just affect the victim and the perpetrator. Those who witness or know of bullying may live in fear that it will be their turn next.

Bullying promotes a poor model of behaviour and may encourage others to imitate these models. People who have been bullied in one setting may well become bullies in another.

For children transferring from school to college, or college to work the fear of bullying is widespread. Evidence has shown that bullying is a major concern for parents and young people of all ages.

Endeavour staff work hard to show all students attending the provision as well as their parents and carers that peer relationships can be repaired quickly and effectively with the support of staff and peers, avoiding unnecessary escalation. Reducing the number of incidents of bullying but more importantly, reducing the number of young people perceiving themselves as a victim or others as perpetrators and experiencing the associated personal consequences which impact on the wellbeing of themselves and others.

Organisations

Organisations which encourage or even tolerate bullying are less effective. Where the values and culture of the organisation are dominated by fear and subordination, individual are less efficient, moral is lower and absenteeism is more frequent.

Breach of this policy may lead to action being taken under the Academy's formal Disciplinary Procedure. Any employee, who feels they have been treated in a manner contrary to the spirit of this policy, should seek recourse in accordance with the Academy's Grievance or Dignity at Work procedures.
