Promoting Positive Behaviour Policy

INTRODUCTION

Endeavour Academy students have been referred from their commissioning school as they have been unable to manage within the mainstream setting and require additional support available through the bespoke programmes, smaller class sizes and higher staff to student ratio. Students present with a range of Social, Emotional and Mental Health related issues (SEMH). Students with SEMH require specific boundaries and consistency in the application of behaviour expectations. Taking into consideration that all behaviour is a form of communication, it is expected that students accessing the provision will at times, exhibit a range of challenging behaviours and emotional insecurities, including low self-esteem issues, lack of confidence, individual vulnerability, and heightened anxiety. With many, there may be a history of bullying or being bullied and it is expected that some will have particular difficulties in dealing with change and transitional phases, including their transfer to the academy. We also support students who have a history of self-harm, suicidal tendencies and some who are at risk of CSE.

It is important that all those accessing the provision, students, parents / carers, staff and visitors feel valued and that mutual respect is promoted at all times. In attempts to repair harm and minimise conflict, Restorative Practice is used by all Academy staff and students.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

To ensure a positive culture is maintained within the academy, all adults have an important responsibility to model high standards of behaviour, both in their dealings with the students and with each other, as their example will have an important influence on the student presentation and engagement.

All adults should:

- encourage relationships based on care, respect and understanding of the individual needs of others.
- ensure fair treatment for all, regardless of age, gender, race, ability, and / or disability.
- show appreciation of the efforts and contributions of all, promoting positivity, praise and individual recognition.
- display the highest standards of conduct, including the modelling of punctuality, consistency, and fair and equitable boundaries.
- incorporate empathy, unconditional positive regard, and genuineness into daily routines in support of promoting positive behaviours.

ENDEAVOUR ACADEMY EXPECTATIONS

The following behaviour expectations have been developed in consultation with all stakeholders. The behaviour expectations outline the behaviours that should be demonstrated by the students on a day-to-day basis. For each expectation, we appreciate there will be times where students make mistakes and get it wrong. In these instances, students have the opportunity to correct their behaviours before a sanction is implemented. It is important that students see what the reward for positive behaviour is and how staff at the Academy will support them to ensure positive behaviour.

Vocational providers:

All of the above expectations apply when engaging in activities with external providers.

Repeated issues may result in loss of vocational provision privilege.

Additional loss of points to be determined by SLT.

Parents / Carers will be informed and involved in decision making / regular reviews etc.

Offsite activities:

Jeopardy of health and safety may result in loss of offsite privilege.

Additional loss of points may occur depending on the nature of the behaviour.

Parents / Carers will be informed and involved in next steps.

Dependant on the severity of the behaviour, bringing the academy into disrepute could result in further sanction.

The components of a positive approach to behaviour management include:

- An understanding of normal child development and the origins of problem behaviours.
- Written policies and agreements, including Home Academy Agreements, so that everyone knows what they can expect.
- Involving students in creating behaviour management plans where necessary, identifying triggers, strategies which work to de-escalate and resolve issues should they arrive with the objective being to minimise the risk of behaviours occurring in the first instance.
- Understanding what happens when the individual student is part of a group: identifying how they can be supported to manage themselves, or be managed, so that any triggers can be addressed and removed.
- The use of Restorative Practice and MECC (Making Every Contact Count) – reminding students that their actions can influence outcome and allows for positive manipulations.
- Every interaction is an opportunity for intervention.
- Having graduated de-escalation and diversion strategies to pre-empt or limit the negative behaviour.
- Teaching conflict resolution skills and strategies.
- Keeping clear incident records that allow for discussion, learning and changed practice as a result of the monitoring of incidents in respect of the individual student, staff members and good practice in general.
- Where possible, resolve behavioural concerns restoratively through conferences or activities to provide an opportunity to reflect and put right any negative behaviour.
- A method of debriefing for all involved that encourages students and staff to express their views about incidents and to learn from them.
- Encouraging students to voice concerns if they feel they have been unfairly treated in any way.
- Keeping parents, carers and relevant professionals involved and informed at all stages, from policy development and assessment to monitoring of incidents.
- Taking all complaints seriously and being open to external and independent scrutiny.
- Regular management review of both individual incidents and patterns of incident and behaviour, within and across settings.

All staff are trained in Restorative Approaches to behaviour management and on-going de-escalation techniques (specific to individual children if necessary). All staff are reminded of the importance of MECC and should wherever possible provide positivity, praise and reward for positive behaviours.

RECORDING OF BEHAVIOURS

All Endeavour students have the opportunity to gain points and be rewarded using a daily points system. Each young person is given the opportunity for a 'fresh start' in every new lesson they attend. Points are awarded throughout the entire day, during each separate session. Points are awarded as per the grid shown to the right:

Exceeded expectations	3 points
Met expectations	2 points
Partially met expectations	1 point
Did not meet expectations	0 points

We understand that students may have barriers towards certain subjects which can impact on productivity, attitude and behaviour, therefore we believe that by providing an opportunity to leave issues behind and start again when entering the next classroom reduces the risk of escalation and allows for students to turn around / improve upon their behaviours and attitude, creating opportunities for success and minimising gaps in learning.

Promoting Positive Behaviour Policy

MECC and Restorative practice is used throughout to promote positive interactions, actions and outcomes which usually results in the work set being completed with the support from subject teachers / mentors sometimes at a later time on 1:1 basis. Students are given opportunity to redeem their points if work is completed to a good standard and behaviour has been positive through the interventions provided.

WHO RECORDS THE BEHAVIOUR?

Within the Academy, it is the responsibility of Teachers within the classroom at the end of the lesson to record any behaviours and achievements on the available point sheets. During tutor time, targeted intervention sessions and social times Key Workers, Tutors and other relevant staff are able to discuss points with students. Staff can communicate any behaviour (both positive and negative) that requires recording during the daily briefing / solution focused discussions.

REWARDS TRIP CRITERIA

At the start of every half term cycle, students will have the opportunity to start 'afresh' on meeting the required criteria to attend the Academy's rewards trips. Thresholds are set six times during the course of the academic year, which encompass percentage attendance (Minimum of 85%), and behaviour expectations. Students meeting these thresholds will be invited to attend a rewards event.

TERMLY TUTOR GROUP REWARD CRITERIA

In order to keep individual students motivated to present positive behaviour, Termly Reward (12 weeks) will be given to a student in each Tutor Group who has met or exceeding a set number of conduct points for the given period.

STAR OF THE LESSON AWARDS

Staff have slips available to hand out in each lesson for anyone they deem exceeds expectations – especially with regards to exhibiting kindness to others through their use of MECC and restorative approaches to support peer relationships within school or within their communities.

BEHAVIOUR INTERVENTIONS

Where a student cannot rectify their behaviours through the above behaviour expectations and the restorative approach, a student may be requested to attend an appropriate Intervention Programme, prior to fixed-term exclusions being implemented. This will be internal where a student will be directed to attend the provision outside the usual school times, if necessary, an alternative location may be used within the sponsor premises. Communication will be made with parents to confirm the dates, times, and location of the provision. On all occasions, work and resources will be set which enables the student to reflect on their behaviour.

EXCLUSIONS

Whilst maintaining consistency of response, Endeavour Academy recognise that education is the key in changing behaviour and will operate with some flexibility to take account of students' individual circumstances.

Fixed term exclusions are given in response to very serious incidents of undesirable behaviour or repeated undesirable behaviour. The exclusion is an outward and visible sign that such behaviour is absolutely rejected by the academy and allows time for reflection and discussion at home, before returning to normal education. Other responses may be applied alongside the fixed term exclusion (see guidance on length of exclusions), including intervention and support from One Point professionals.

After each exclusion, a re-integration meeting will be held with the student, parent / carer, and any other relevant members of staff to ensure the student and parents / carers understand the expectations of the academy. Until this meeting has taken place, the student will not be allowed through to the main academy area. Where exclusion is used as a sanction, appropriate intervention will be considered in order to support the positive improvement in behaviour of the student concerned.

Examples of Misdemeanours likely to be regarded as very serious.

These would include, but are not necessarily limited to, physical aggression, possession of illegal substances or offensive weapons, bullying or sexual / racial harassment, use of extremely obscene or defiant language, bringing dangerous (including inflammable or explosive) materials on the site, vandalism, misdemeanours which continue in a defiant manner despite warnings and support, repeated disruptive or defiant behaviour, inappropriate language or calculated idleness, bringing the Academy into disrepute and malicious allegations against staff.

Legal Context

Endeavour Academy and its Trustees will work within terms of statutory guidance and procedures including, if appropriate, guidance on SEN for students with Social, Emotional and Behavioural Disorders.

Purposes of Exclusions

- To make a clearly understood statement that certain behaviour is not to be tolerated within the academy.
- To present students and parents / carers with their responsibilities in terms of responding to serious disciplinary issues.
- To protect the educational and social wellbeing and/or safety of other students.
- To protect the wellbeing and/or safety of staff.

Situations when exclusions may be deemed to be an appropriate response.

- ✓ serious breaches of discipline, possibly involving violence.
- ✓ criminal behaviour.
- ✓ the use of extremely obscene language towards adults.
- ✓ health and safety risks to other students' well-being and safety.
- ✓ possession of illegal substances.
- ✓ extreme defiance or insolence.
- ✓ making malicious allegations against staff.
- ✓ bringing the academy into disrepute.
- ✓ less severe, but nonetheless serious matters of discipline, when earlier warnings have not been heeded (e.g., smoking after repeated warnings, failing to adhere to examination requirements).
- ✓ consistent poor behaviour in lessons leading to disruption of the learning of other students.

Prior to exclusions, consideration may also be based on a pattern of undesirable behaviour.

Promoting Positive Behaviour Policy

The length of the fixed term exclusion

On the first occasion a student receives a fixed-term exclusion, the time served will be dependent on the misdemeanour.

On the second occasion a student receives a fixed-term exclusion, the time served may be longer and, after several occasions, a student may be classed as a recidivist student and placed onto a Revised Programme of Study.

Revised Programme of Study

Students who have several fixed-term exclusions or who persistently defy the behavioural expectations of the school could be classed as recidivist students and put onto a Revised Programme of Study (RPOS). This would be after a range of interventions and strategies. Parents/carers will receive written notification.

The student will have a warning meeting with a member of SLT and their Learning Mentor to discuss their behaviour record and the implications of continued poor behaviour choices. Exclusion periods are based on the incident which has occurred. For example, a breach of the behaviour expectations could result in a 1-day exclusion, a second incident in a 3-day exclusion and third incident in a 5-day exclusion. Further incidents will result in an appearance before a panel of Trustees. If a student still does not meet behaviour expectations, they will then be placed on a Revised Programme of Study in which the student's times for attending will be altered. This, in effect, will be a final warning and, should the student's behaviour continue to cause concern, there is the likelihood that a recommendation to terminate the placement will follow.

Monitoring Exclusions

Exclusions are monitored including numbers over time of exclusions. This is a measure of the success of the promoting positive behaviour policy.

Public examinations during an exclusion period

Endeavour Academy will make arrangements for students on exclusion to sit any public examination that falls within the exclusion period. However, the examination may be supervised in isolation or held at another examination centre, for example: at another school.

Where a child should be during exclusions

Parents / carers have a duty to ensure that, when their child is excluded, he/she is not present in a public place during academy hours, unless there is reasonable justification for this. It will be for parents / carers to show reasonable justification. If a child is allowed in a public place, parents / carers may receive a penalty notice from the LA. They must also ensure that their child does not come to Endeavour Academy during the period of exclusion, especially to meet friends, at the end of the academy day.

PERMANENT EXCLUSION

This is seen as a sanction of last resort. The ending of a student's placement will normally be considered for persistent breaches of academy discipline following multiple fixed-term exclusions. The decision to end a placement may also be made by mutual agreement in favour of alternative provision more suited to the student.

Promoting Positive Behaviour Policy

DUAL REGISTERED STUDENTS ON TRIAL – ENDING OF A PLACEMENT

All Endeavour students complete taster days and a 6-week trial period prior to being offered a single registration within the Academy. Students who refuse to participate effectively will not successfully transfer and the placement will end with students expected to return to their commissioning school.

SEARCHING AND CONFISCATION OF INAPPROPRIATE ITEMS

Wherever possible, students will be asked to empty their pockets and comply with the request voluntarily, evidencing mutual respect and positive relationships / trust.

Searches will be carried out with a second member of staff present – where possible, this will be someone whom the young person requests from the staff team.

The Academy reserves the right to search students for items that are banned by the academy rules. In addition, academy staff can search lockers and bags. If a student refuses to be searched then permission will be sought from parents / carers or in extreme cases, the Police will be contacted.

Academy staff can search students without consent for knives, weapons, alcohol, illegal drugs, and stolen items. A search can be undertaken if the Academy has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a student is in possession of a prohibited item. Items found will be retained by academy staff and may be handed to the Police where necessary.

During a search, students will not be instructed to remove garments that are not outer garments. For clarity, outer garments mean clothing that is not worn next to the skin but does include, hats, shoes, boots, gloves and scarves, coats and other additional jumpers, sports jackets, and sweatshirts.

Section 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, enables academy staff to confiscate, retain or dispose of a student's property, where reasonable to do so.

Academies are not required to inform parents before a search takes place or to seek consent to search their child.

Appendix 1 (Uniform)

Great care and attention have been taken in ensuring Endeavour Academy school uniform is accessible to all students regardless of circumstances. Certain items are provided to all students free of charge to keep costs low, and sensory issues were taken into consideration when designing and choosing fabrics etc, therefore it is expected that students are able to abide by the uniform regulations in order to be safeguarded (being easily identifiable in a college setting) and represent themselves and their school with pride.

Following the uniform code evidences the foundation of a successful environment to learn.

We ask that parents / carers support school by ensuring their child follows the uniform code below:

- Endeavour Academy Sweatshirt; Grey sweatshirt Endeavour Logo. – 1 x Provided free of charge
- Endeavour Academy polo shirt with logo - 1x also provided by school.
- Footwear – suitable plain black footwear: must have closed front and back and have black laces.
- Trousers: Black school trousers
- Black Skirt and thick black tights – Appropriate length – No miniskirts permitted.

Note:

- Outside coats – are to be removed upon arrival and are not permitted to be worn inside the school corridor / classroom. – the building has a modern central heating system and temperatures are kept a suitable level at all times.
- Incorrect uniform may result in a student having to borrow kit that is not theirs.
- Hoodies or unacceptable garments worn will be kept at reception until the end of the academy day
- Where necessary parents / carers will be asked to attend school to drop off / collect items in support of the school expectations around uniform.

Anyone who might struggle to fund the purchase of uniform items is encouraged to liaise confidentially with our Family Worker, Miss Thornley on 01915185595.
